

WHAT IS THE FORMAT?

Because of the intense training and the volume of teaching material and practicums we have broken the training into three weekends approximately a month apart. In Springfield we held the trainings in May, June and early August. We began on a Thursday evening after supper and ended on Saturday at noon allowing clergy and laity time to travel home and be present for services on Sunday morning.